ACTION REQUEST

Subject: Report of Faculty Retirement

Action Requested: Adoption of Retirement Memoir

Fu Yuan Schuttringer, M.L.S., senior associate librarian, Mardigian Library, University of Michigan-Dearborn, retired from active faculty status on August 2, 2013.

Ms. Schuttringer received her B.M. degree from the University of Cincinnati in 1973, her M.S. degree from the State University of New York at Potsdam in 1975, and her M.L.S. degree from the State University of New York at Geneseo in 1977. She served as an assistant librarian at the State University of New York at Fredonia (1977-81), a librarian at the Erie Community College, State University of New York (1981-89), and as a cataloger at the Buffalo and Erie County Historical Society (1988). Ms. Schuttringer joined the University of Michigan-Dearborn as an assistant librarian in 2002, and was promoted to associate librarian in 2005, and senior associate librarian in 2010.

Ms. Schuttringer coordinated library collection development, collection management, acquisitions, and materials budgets at the Mardigian Library. She developed and implemented a novel electronic resources management system for tracking the library's subscriptions. Ms. Schuttringer actively participated in the University's efforts to streamline the acquisition of library electronic resources between the Ann Arbor, Dearborn, and Flint campuses. She served on numerous library committees including the UM Library Core E-Team, GR&RP Team, and E-Chairs. Two of her notable professional presentations include "Collection Development in Rapidly Changing Times" at the Michigan Library Association Conference in 2003 and "Lessons Learned from Collecting Usage Statistics of Journals and Databases" at the Michigan Council of Library Deans in 2009. Ms. Schuttringer also served as a mentor for the UM-Dearborn's Women on the Move program and as treasurer of the Michigan Innovative Users Group.

The Regents now salute this faculty member for her dedicated service by naming Fu Yuan Schuttringer senior associate librarian emerita.
