

REGENTS COMMUNICATION REQUEST FOR ACTION

SUBJECT: Sec. 11.07: The University of Michigan-Dearborn: College of Arts, Sciences and Letters Executive Committee

Sec. 11.21: The University of Michigan-Flint School of Education and Human Services Executive Committee

ACTION: Approval of Bylaw revisions

The following proposed revisions to the University of Michigan Regents Bylaws are recommended for approval:

Sec. 11.07: UM-Dearborn - College of Arts, Sciences and Letters Executive Committee Executive Committee

This amendment reduces the size of the college's Executive Committee from eight to seven voting members to reflect the recent merger of the departments of Language, Culture, and Communications, and Literature, Philosophy, and the Arts into one department, Language, Culture, and the Arts.

Sec. 11.21 of the University of Michigan Bylaws specifies that UM-Flint School of Education and Human Services (SEHS) Executive Committee

The faculty and administration are in full agreement that the SEHS bylaws be modified to reflect three-year terms for Executive Committee members. Three-year terms will lead to greater operational efficiency for SEHS and a more equitable distribution of workload for faculty.

Respectfully submitted,

Sally J. Churchill

Vice President and Secretary
