ACTION REQUEST: Academic Administrative Appointment for a Faculty Member

NAME: Kyle D. Logue

CURRENT TITLES: Associate Dean for Faculty and Research, Douglas A. Kahn Collegiate Professor, and Professor of Law, with tenure, Law School

RECOMMENDED TITLES: Interim Dean, Douglas A. Kahn Collegiate Professor, and Professor of Law, with tenure, Law School

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2024

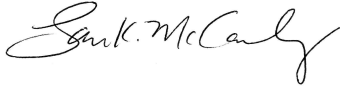

I am pleased to recommend the appointment of Kyle D. Logue as interim dean, Law School, effective January 1, 2024 until a permanent dean is appointed.

Kyle Logue received his Bachelor of Arts, with highest honors, in 1987 from Auburn University, College of Liberal Arts. He received his J.D. in 1990 from Yale Law School. He clerked for the Honorable Patrick E. Higginbotham in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit from 1990-1991. Professor Logue practiced law with the firm of Sutherland, Asbill & Brennan in Atlanta, Georgia from 1991-1993. He joined the Law School faculty as an assistant professor in 1993 and was promoted to professor in 1998. Professor Logue was appointed as the associate dean for academic affairs from 2006 – 2008, and his current role as the associate dean for faculty and research since January 2022. From 2006 to 2016, Professor Logue served as the Wade H. and Dores M. McCree Collegiate Professor of Law, and was then appointed as the Douglas A. Kahn Collegiate Professor of Law in 2016.

Professor Logue is widely recognized as a tax, torts, and insurance law expert, one of the nation's leading scholars in all of those fields. Applying the tools of economic analysis, he is known for his work on products liability law, legal transitions (tax and otherwise), and the role of insurance as a type of private regulation. He has published widely, including as co-author of one of the leading insurance law casebooks, Insurance Law and Policy: Cases and Materials (5th ed. 2021, with T. Baker and C. Saiman). His publications have appeared in journals such as the Chicago Law Review, the Cornell Law Review, the Tax Law Review, the Virginia Law Review, the Stanford Law Review, and the Yale Law Journal. Professor Logue teaches introductory torts, in addition to range of tax and insurance courses. He has the deserved reputation as one of the school's strongest teachers. Since 2010, he has served as a member of the American Law Institute (ALI) and was the associate reporter for the ALI's Restatement of Law of Liability Insurance, completed in 2018.

I am pleased that Professor Logue has agreed to serve as interim dean of the Law School. He is a distinguished legal scholar and educator with years of experience as a faculty member, administrator, and researcher. I am confident that the Law School will maintain its momentum during this interim period under his leadership. I enthusiastically recommend this appointment, effective January 1, 2024 until a permanent dean is appointed.

Respectfully submitted,
