ACTION REQUEST: Administrative Appointment Approval

NAME: Simone Himbeault Taylor

CURRENT TITLE: Senior Associate Vice President for Student Life, Office of the Vice President for Student Life

ADDITIONAL TITLE: Interim Vice President for Student Life, Office of the Vice President for Student Life

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 18, 2020

I am pleased to recommend the appointment of Simone Himbeault Taylor as interim vice president for student life, Office of the Vice President for Student Life, effective January 18, 2020. She will continue in this role until such time as a new vice president for student life is installed.

As interim vice president, Ms. Taylor will assume all the duties and responsibilities of the vice president for student life which encompasses oversight of the Office of the Vice President for Student Life and all the units that report to that office.

Ms. Taylor has over 40 years of experience in higher education, with over 20 years of distinguished service in UM's central student life administration. In Ms. Taylor's current role as senior associate vice president for student life, she provides strategic direction and development to the organization and the student community, guides Student Life's institutional impact on student learning and development and acts on behalf of the vice president in her stead. She oversees many functional areas within student life, such as the University Career Center, the Ginsberg Center for Community Service and Learning, the International Center, the Office of Student Conflict Resolution, the Program on Intergroup Relations, and the Spectrum Center. As a scholar-practitioner, Ms. Taylor also serves as adjunct associate professor in the Center for the Study of Higher and Post-secondary Education at the University of Michigan's School of Education.

Simone Himbeault Taylor earned her B.A. in botany (1977), her M.A. in counseling/higher education (1982), and her Ph.D. in higher education (1994), all from the University of Michigan. She has gained recognition for her scholarship and teaching from the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, being awarded both Dissertation of the Year and Outstanding Contribution to Student Affairs through Teaching.

It is with distinct pleasure that I recommend the appointment of Simone Himbeault Taylor as interim vice president for student life, Office of the Vice President for Student Life, effective January 18, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

ACTION REQUEST: Administrative Appointment for a Faculty Member

NAME: Keith A. Moreland

CURRENT TITLE: Professor of Accounting, with tenure, School of Management

ADDITIONAL TITLE: Interim Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, Office of the Chancellor, University of Michigan-Flint

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2020

I am pleased to recommend the appointment of Keith A. Moreland as interim provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs, Office of the Chancellor, University of Michigan-Flint, effective January 1, 2020.

Keith Moreland received his Bachelor of Business Administration, with a concentration in accounting, from the University of Michigan in 1977, and received a Master's of Business Administration in 1985 from the University of Cincinnati, where he also received a Ph.D. in 1992. Professor Moreland joined the University of Michigan-Flint in 1994 and currently serves as a professor of accounting. At the University of Michigan-Flint, he was appointed as the associate dean of the School of Management (2004-2006) and the interim dean of the School of Health Professions and Studies (2015).

Professor Moreland is an active researcher, with a current focus in personal financial capability and accounting pedagogical issues. He is also active in professional organizations, including as a member of the Michigan Association of CPA's Financial Literacy Task Force and Accounting Educators' Task Force, of which he is a former chair and vice chair. His depth of experience and knowledge of the university provide him with the necessary foundation to undertake this important role.

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend the appointment of Keith A. Moreland as interim provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs, Office of the Chancellor, University of Michigan-Flint, effective January 1, 2020.

ACTION REQUEST: Administrative Appointment

NAME: William (B.J.) Hull

RECOMMENDED TITLE: Vice Chancellor for University Advancement, Office of the Chancellor, University of Michigan-Flint

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 20, 2020

I am pleased to recommend the appointment of William (B.J.) Hull as vice chancellor for university advancement, Office of the Chancellor, University of Michigan-Flint, effective January 20, 2020.

William Hull received his B.A in English from Alma College, Alma, Michigan, and his M.B.A. from Michigan State University in 2008.

Mr. Hull has nearly 20 years of progressively responsible experience in the field of development and the last ten years within higher education. Most recently, Mr. Hull has served as the vice president for advancement, Olivet College, Olivet, Michigan. During his time at Olivet College, he developed, guided and achieved a record-setting comprehensive campaign in support of their 2020 strategic plan. Mr. Hull also created and directed the implementation of a modern alumni engagement program and was instrumental in the development of quality data analytics aiding in prospect selection for all fundraising programs.

As vice chancellor for university advancement, Mr. Hull will serve as the chief development officer and will provide strategic and operational leadership of Development (major and planned giving), Alumni Relations and Annual Giving, Career Center, Corporate and Foundation Engagement, Communications and Marketing, and Government and Community Relations.

Mr. Hull's education, background and experience have prepared him to assume this leadership appointment. I enthusiastically recommend the appointment of William (B.J.) Hull as vice chancellor for university advancement, Office of the Chancellor, University of Michigan-Flint, effective January 20, 2020.
